Information Collection and Storage

This website will not require or collect any personal information about you unless you choose to provide that information to us.

Data regarding your computer hardware and software, including (but not limited to) your IP address, browser, dates and times of access, domain names, and websites that referred you here, may be collected by this website for purposes of improving the quality of the information and services provided by this website, to understand our visitors' preferences, to make improvements to our visitors' overall experience of this website, and to personalize this experience where doing so would improve the enjoyment of this website. This information is gathered without identifying the user personally.

With this data we learn about the number of visitors to our site and the types of technology our visitors use. We never track or record information about individuals and their visits and we do not share this data with anyone outside the Company unless necessary for law enforcement purposes (see "disclosure exceptions" below).

Personally Identifiable Information

Personal information (name, address, phone number) may be gathered but only with your explicit authorization and only in exchange for information, products, or services, whether free or paid. Be aware that if you choose not to provide this information you will not be able to receive information, products, or services offered by us to you. If you do provide this information, it may be shared with payment processors (example: PAYPAL) and credit card companies in order to process payment transactions and delivery of our products and/or services.

We will never intentionally disclose any information regarding your personal identification to any third party without your consent. If you choose to provide us with such information, you agree to receive information, products, or services from this website. If at any time you wish to opt-out, or unsubscribe, you may do so by clicking "unsubscribe" at the bottom of any email you receive from us, or by notifying the Company directly, by email, at info@lineleoff.com.

This website may contain links to outside, third-party websites. When you click on and follow a link to another website, you automatically leave this site, and your interactions outside of this website are no longer protected by our Privacy Policy.

Cookies

The Company may use what are commonly known as "cookies" or text files, placed on your hard drive by a website's server. Cookies store information about your first visit to a website, such as your preferred language and pages you visited and recall that information in order to personalize your next visit. Cookies also help to personalize your web experience. Cookies cannot harm your computer or transfer viruses.

You can decline the use of cookies. To do this, modify the settings in your browser.

Disclosure Exceptions

This website will disclose your personal information, without notice, but only if:

1. It is required to do so by law;
2. As required by service of process;
3. To defend our rights and property;
4. To protect the personal safety of visitors to this website.

Children: Minimum Age Requirement

This website complies with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 (COPPA). COPPA and its accompanying regulations protect the privacy of children using the Internet.

This website is intended for persons thirteen (13) years of age or older. Anyone under the age of thirteen must seek the permission of a parent or guardian before using this website.

This website will not knowingly contact or collect personal information from children under 13 and does not intend to solicit information of any kind from children under 13.

Policy Changes/Revisions

It is incumbent upon you to review this website's Privacy Policy from time to time so as to become aware of any changes, revisions, or modifications.
